

DAILAB – JUKU (Join Universities for Kindering Youth)

JST-SAKURA Program Students visit to AIST November 08, 2016

Dr. MORIMOTO (AIST International department) and Dr. WADHWA (DAILAB-AIST) addressed the delegation. The interaction was highlighted by introduction AIST organization, history, achievements, research policies and international activities including description of DAILAB as First Joint International Laboratory of DBT (Govt. of India) and AIST (Japan). WADHWA introduced her own experience in Japan and highlighted chances and challenges for young generation. She said, "Language is no big challenge for Indian students and they should avail the excellent high education opportunities in JAPAN that is a Joyfully Advanced Polite Professional Perseverance & Perfection Aspiring Nation".

