

Try to memorise the following:

- The founding fathers considered owning slaves to be immoral
- Steven Pinker is one of the leading proponents of the computational theory of mind
- A wealthy manufacturer, J. R. D. Tata, sought out the young inventor
- The experts widely regarded Virat Kohli as a Bradmanesque figure

Which of these did you see earlier?

- The founding fathers thought owning slaves to be immoral
- Steven Pinker is one of the leading critics of the computational theory of mind
- A wealthy manufacturer, J. R. D. Tata, sought the young inventor out
- Virat Kohli was widely regarded by the experts as a Bradmanesque figure

Original sentences

- The founding fathers considered owning slaves to be immoral [Lexical variation]
- Steven Pinker is one of the leading proponents of the computational theory of mind [Semantic variation]
- *A wealthy manufacturer, J. R. D. Tata, sought out the young inventor [Formal variation]
- The experts widely regarded Virat Kohli as a Bradmanesque figure* [Passive/Active variation]